- Today's topic: Avoiding Confusion is a Good Solution

“For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.” --1 Corinthians 14:33

Confusion = Inability to think with clarity
 Inability to act with understanding and intelligence
 Lacking logical order or sense
 Uncertainty
 Situation of panic
 Breakdown of order

In recent weeks, I've been reminded of the huge price of chaos and confusion. Not only in terms of dollars and cents, but in terms of the emotional and mental stress that comes from disorganization. Granted, there are situations that arise unexpectedly, and we must be flexible to address them as they come up. But if you step back and think about it, much of the chaos that we experience is either self-inflicted...or created by others, which we in turn must deal with.

As our culture drifts from God, is it not logical that confusion will also increase?

If we turn toward God and seek His wisdom, is it not logical that peace will also increase?

Which kind of work environment would you rather have? Peace or confusion?

What areas of chaos and confusion do you particularly see in the business world? In your business?

As you serve on the frontlines of the spiritual battle, is it likely that Satan will try to disrupt you via chaos?

Evaluate yourself from 1 (weak) to 10 (strong) in terms of operating in chaos and confusion.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Why did you give yourself this rating?
What benefits might you enjoy by being less chaotic and better organized?
What specific actions can you take to become better organized?
