Fellowship of Companies for Christ
 Greater Hartford Chapter
 July 2, 2014

- Welcome! Opening prayer and praise reports
- FCCI update: 9/21-25 conference in Amelia Island, FL
- Today's topic: *The Blessed Life

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. –Psalm 1:1-3

Keep In Touch began 26 years ago yesterday, and this passage was (and is) the foundational Scripture for the business. Looking back on these nearly 9,500 days, I have experienced the reality of this passage in a multitude of ways. Never did I truly grasp (nor will we ever be able to) what lied ahead. I recently prepared a current schematic of my life which turned out to be in the shape of a cross...and it captures the essence of how being planted in the Lord these past 26 years has led to many blessings. Please see the back for reference.

Over the years, I've taught how this passage applies to Christian business owners. Today, we're going to process the content of my PowerPoint presentation, which is online at FCCI-NE.org.

Evaluate yourself from 1 (bad) to 10 (good) in terms of being a Ps 1:1-3 kind of person?	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Why did you give yourself this rating?
What benefits might you enjoy by more closely reflecting the blessed person in Ps 1:1-3?
What specific actions can you take to be more like the person in Ps 1:1-3?
